

2 DEAD, 3 WOUNDED IN STRIKE RIOT, MORE TROUBLE IS FEARED

Newark Police Take Precautions to Prevent Another Battle To-Day

Planning further trouble, the Newark police authorities have issued an extra patrolman on duty today in the neighborhood where a violent battle occurred yesterday between strikers and strike-breakers from the A. Hollander & Sons Company's establishment in East Newark.

How to Fight Tuberculosis

In a paper read last year before the Texas County Medical Society and published in part in the Medical Progress, Dr. J. W. Garhart of San Antonio, Texas, a physician who has devoted much time to the study of tuberculosis, said: "Since time fails to constitute those nutrients of all the mineral substances of the human body, they must be supplied in the foods or supplemented in mineral preparations, or natural starvation ensues with tuberculosis unchecked. The widespread and unchecked spread of tuberculosis and other preventable diseases is due largely to the decimated time lacking complete rest of muscles throughout the entire world."

Thus from another we learn that medical science comes justification for the use of diet in the treatment of tuberculosis.

Another paper, "The Case of Eckman," alternative method of the success attending the widespread use of this remedy, discusses the use of the combination of diet and exercise. It was found to be entirely assimilable. It causes no stomach disturbance, and since it contains neither opiates, narcotics, nor nasal forming drugs, it is safe to try.

Eckman's alternative has effected remarkable results in numerous cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and also in the cure of many cases of rheumatism, gout, neuritis, etc., and bronchitis, pneumonia, etc. In many instances such conditions, apparently, have yielded completely to it.

It is safe to say that the cure is out of the way to order or send direct to us.

Two were killed and three wounded in the riot.

William J. Aherns of No. 160 Lexington Street is under arrest charged with inciting and inciting to the religious暴行.

One wounded man, Louis Paul, who forty years ago left No. 25 Bay Street, was emerging from a smoke-filled building in the heat. He was admitted to St. Barnabas Hospital.

The dead men are Morris Rubin, seventy-five years old, of No. 14 Broadway Street, and a male believed to be Abraham Newark, of No. 145 Franklin Street. They were strikers. The other wounded man, Louis Aherns, twenty years old, of No. 10 Lexington Street, a relative of the man under arrest, and Nicholas Paganino, twenty-two years old, of No. 100 Pacific Street. They are strike leaders, managers of the longshoremen and Louis Aherns was shot while the wounded of the two others were made with the steel handle of an umbrella.

The shooting occurred at Avenue and Morris Street, outside of the Hall, where the strikers were holding an indignation meeting. Rubin and Newark fell on the shoulders of the man, but the gun fight progressed along Franklin Street for a while, in the presence of nearly 2,000 persons.

FRIENDS DROWN TOGETHER.

Capt. Westernman Gave Up Life in Vain Effort to Save His Companions

In an effort to save the life of his friend Capt. Hugo Carlson of the city snow clearing crew, Frank Westernman leaped off the pier at West Thirty-third Street and North River at 3 o'clock this morning and was drowned. The bodies of the two friends, clasped in each other's arms, were recovered later by Owen Derry and James Burke, laborers.

Capt. Westernman was to have been married next Wednesday and he and Capt. Carlson left their crews last night to call on Capt. Westernman's fiancee. The pier at which their crews were tied up is bad repair. Evidently in trying later to board the Geraldine in the dark Capt. Carlson stepped on a broken springboard and fell overboard. Capt. Westernman, it appears, went after him. Their cries were heard too late.

Save Seal Hunters in Blizzard.

ST. JOHNS, N. Y., April 11.—A repetition of last year's sealing disaster in which about 175 hunters perished on the ice floes was narrowly averted yesterday when 150 men from the steamer Neptune were rescued from the ice by the Floridian, according to a wireless despatch from the latter steamer to-day. The hunters had been caught in a blizzard on Saturday and were adrift on the floes all night.

In Dead at Age of 102.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 12.—John P. Rogers, oldest resident of Genesee County, is dead at Darien, N. Y., at the age of 102. He was born in Lenoir, Conn., Jan. 8, 1813, and came to Covington, now Pavilion, in 1816. He cast his first vote for Van Buren in 1816.

He died in his sleep.

Albert Carlsson.—A son of Albert Carlsson, 82, died yesterday at Pleasant Valley, N. Y., at the age of eighty years. With Albert

THREE NOTED CHURCHMEN DIE WITHIN THREE DAYS

Mgr. M. Mahon and Father Pauli followed Mgr. McCready to the grave.

Mgr. Denis J. McManus, rector of the church of the Epiphany in Morris Avenue, died yesterday from St. Vincent's Hospital, where some weeks earlier he had been suffering from a hemorrhage of the brain. Edward Farley had scarcely time to recover from the shock of the news when he was informed by wire of the sudden death of Father Pauli, another devout member of the clergy. Pauli had been rector of Sacred Heart Church, West New Brighton, Staten Island. Father Pauli was buried in St. Peter's Cemetery.

The funeral services for the Rev. John J. O'Farrell, pastor of St. Peter's Church, were held yesterday afternoon at the church.
